

Proudly presents a Parent Seminar

HOW TO PREPARE FOR YOUR IEP MEETING

WITH
MICHAEL E. JEWELL, ESQ.

Michael Jewell graduated from Brigham Young University Law School and has been a practicing attorney for more than fourteen years. His experience in special education law includes advocating for parents of children with all types of disabilities from autism through specific learning disability and traumatic brain injury. He is fluent in Spanish, has presented to numerous parent groups, and has represented families in due process proceedings throughout Southern California

DATE: Tuesday, August 26, 2008
TIME: 6:30 — 8:30 p.m.
PLACE: Embassy Suites Hotel, La Jolla Room
1325 East Dyer Rd., Santa Ana, 92705
(55 Freeway off Dyer Rd.)

Founded in 2000, Autism Spectrum Therapies provides comprehensive services using Applied Behavior Analysis tailored to the intervention needs of your child. AST works with the family and other treatment providers to develop the appropriate program using a range of ABA methods and implemented by a trained staff of therapists and supervisors.

Space is Limited — RSVP by August 22nd— (714) 641-1120
(866) AST-OC64